“ I am saddened to learn of Kathy's passing. We had a long friendship, going back to high school. We spent years apart, but would always pick up where we left off when we'd meet. I used to see her regularly when I worked, then less so after. As a young woman Kathy was an incredible reader with a world class vocabulary. She continued to speak with thought and empathy throughout her life. She was a kind, generous person who loved her family and friends fiercely. Her Christmas card was always the first to arrive, kicking off the holiday season. I am truly sorry she had so many hurdles and health issues. She deserved so much more than she was dealt. May she be resting pain free and peacefully now with her beloved Mother. Godspeed, old friend.”

“ I met Kathy many years ago when she started working at McDonald's I took her under my wing and helped her there. I would run into her from time to time and we would chat. She was a true fighter and survivor. She will be missed greatly!

“ Kathy was loved because of her caring heartfelt concern for others. We shared visits and good and sad times. We remember the trip to Pittsburgh. We supported each other through many tough times. She showed up for support when our parents passed. We went and got her the night of the apartment fire. Many trips in the night to the ER. Many times were touch and go and we were contact for her family. Kathy never forgot a special occasion, birthdays, anniversaries, or Christmas. We not only received cards, but they were always personalized by a cute little hand drawn smiley face. We also have little trinkets with prayers or words of encouragement on them. She had a big heart she shared with everybody. Greatly Loved and missed. Eddy & Dave

“ While we would only touch base periodically, it was always wonderful to see Kathy out and about. We shared many laughs in high school and some sadness after we graduated. Kathy loved her family! I know that she is finally free from the physical pain she has endured for so many years and is resting in the arms of Jesus. I look forward to the day we will see each other again. Praying for all of you.
