“ The one thing I will never forget and always treasure was from childhood. My pop pop would hitch a trailer on the back of his riding lawn mower and us girls would sit in the trailer. Pop pop would speed everywhere on the property and in the woods. That was so much fun. I used to call it the Hill Billy roller coaster. To be honest I think I got that driving fast and furious in anything with an engine and wheels from him. Ya know he was the first person to ever show me how to shoot a shot gun and to hunt. WOW I can't believe he's gone. Pop pop say hi to grams for me. Now both of you can really thrive with no pain and no heavy burdens on your hearts.

Love ya always and get that riding mower ready for the crazy racing around your property for me when I get there!

Your granddaughter,

Cheryl

“ Pop pop was a unique guy, one that if you met him you never forgot him. He had a stunning hand but a good heart. He had me at hello as he still has me at goodbye. Please remember him for his good at serving his country in times of need in and out of the military. Love and miss you always pop pop
