

Korah Robert Sands

January 21, 1940 - September 20, 2021

Korah Robert Sands, 81, of Ulster, PA formerly of Falls, PA, passed away early Monday morning, September 20, 2021, at the Guthrie Robert Packer Hospital, Sayre, PA. Korah was born in Mehoopany, PA on January 21, 1940, the son of Gilbert "Ted" Sands and Sarah French Sands. Following graduation from Tunkhannock High School, Korah enlisted with the U.S. Airforce where he served from 1957 to 1962 as an aircraft mechanic. In early years, Korah worked as an auto mechanic, in well drilling, and as a milk truck driver. He was later employed by Bendix Corp. in Montrose, PA for 3 years and by P&G in Mehoopany, PA for 23 years until retirement.

Korah was known as a perfectionist and for his ability to fix almost anything. He enjoyed working on cars, motorcycles, and airplanes, flying, home projects, and hunting. Korah was always willing to help others. He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Anna L. Dymond Sands, daughter, Lori Sands, grandchildren, Nickolas Kiwak and Haley Coolbaugh all of Ulster as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. In addition to his parents, Korah was predeceased by 8 siblings.

A private funeral service will be held at the convenience of the family. The family suggests that contributions be directed to Black Walnut American Legion Post No. 510, 328 Old Route 6 Road, Laceyville, PA 18623 in memory of Korah Robert Sands.
