“ I don't even know where to begin. Laurie and I have been friends since we were little kids. My parents were friends with her parents and her grandmother. Laurie and I stayed friends from being a kid to us growing into adults. She was always there for me when I needed her or just wanted her there cuz when we were apart I'd miss her. I remember her staying with me and when she would leave I would cry cuz I didn't want her to go but I knew she had family and other friends she wanted to do stuff with. She even lived with me and babysat for me. I just loved being with her hanging out watching movies or listening to music. There is so many more memories that I will cherish forever. I love you my friend forever and always in my heart.

“ Oh my dear Laurie where do I begin u will always be my chipmunk. You were so little when we first met, but u melted my heart. When I moved away and u cried cause u couldnt come with me, it broke my heart. I dont know what I will do when I come to the valley and not see you. U r always going to be in my heart.

“ I love you Laurie!! I've been blessed by god having such a great & wonderful friend like you!!! I have so many memories of you & I ,I haven't a clue where to start or stop!! I hope I've been as great of a friend to you as you've been to me over the years! I love you with my whole heart & soul,you will be missed greatly.... Sincerely Wendy Irish.... Also I'd like to say a few words for my mother Carol Johnson.. where do I start I've known you since you were a little child running up & down the streets of the east side....40 years have past since then...wow its been that long!! Your mother used to peel the skins off of Wendy's hot dogs when she was little because she was afraid she'd choke!!! She also bought her first pair of shoes!! But back to where I was Laurie I love you dearly, you had a huge heart for everyone....The young woman god took from us to soon I expresses a deep sadness of your loss!! I love you from the bottom of my heart!!! Rest in peace our dear friend!!!

Wendy, I can't even think of anything you didn't say. I met Laurie in high school. She was a friend to me, when many of my "friends" didn't have time for me anymore, because I was pregnant. Her willingness to love others now matter what, is what made her such an awesome friend & person. I always wanted her to know how much she meant to me, so I gave my daughter her middle name, so Laurie would always remember that no matter what our distance or the last time we talked....I would always have a part of friendship close to me. Thank you Laurie! I will never forget you! God speed my friend!
