“ *I really want to send all of my thoughts and prayers out to the family of Vernie, He and I went all the way through school together, and after that we were still good friends, overtime we would just see each other in a store and say "hi, how ya doing" because our lives went in different directions. He was a really great guy. He always respected everyone. I never seen him get upset or mad, he was always calm and cool no matter what the situation was. He loved to be around a lot of people. He and I had a few experiences, "out on the town." He was one of the greatest, he will be missed by a lot of people...goodbye for now, Vernie my friend sincerely,
