“ "Leon, I am so sorry that I wasn't able to visit and honor you this year as a fallen soldier who proudly served but hopefully I will be able to for many years to come. If somebody is able to provide me to the when and where Leon is laid to rest, it would be greatly appreciated. Bob Ackley 607-321-1256

“ Leon, buddy my memories date back to the 1970's when the summer picnics you and Gladys hosted were the highlight of every summer for many years. They were the best and you were the best. I'm happy we were able to share those memories together right up to the end. To Leon's niece and nephew, I believe closure in this new world isn't always easy. If you ever want to share some memories of Leon, I'll be here for you. I'm sure Leon would of wanted it that way. My condolences.” Bob Ackley

“Mr. Weaver was the best neighbor. He would always come over to talk when we were outdoors and bring the puppies some treats. He would tell great stories. We are going to miss his conversation and quick wit. Rest in peace, neighbor. Condolences to his family and friends. Karen & Trula
