Sue, I worked at Sylvania and your parents were always so kind to me. I enjoyed seeing your mother and Linda in the grocery store and the Duke of Hazards was always the subject of our conversation. My younger son Paul was born in April and Linda in July. I remember your mother calling me to bring my baby over to their home to see their newborn, Linda, and I did just that. Once your parents took me to an outing that Sylvania was having. May Linda rest in peace and you be comforted with many memories and the love you showed your sister. Ruth Squires, now living with my youngest daughter near Lebanon, PA and Paul is in the same area.
