“ I apologize for this being late but we moved to Texas and had no idea Linda had passed away. She was our neighbor for many years in Sayre and she was also a wonderful friend to me. As I was a single mom when I moved in, we “looked out” for each other and had lots and lots of talks. My daughter, age six when we moved in, loved “Miss Linda” Very rarely did I see her without her big, warm smile, and she had a wonderful sense of humor. She helped me out many times. Your mother was special woman.
With caring and our deepest sympathies,
Joellen and Paul Davis

“ My deepest condolences to the family for this tremendous loss. May the words found at Isaiah 26:19 bring you comfort in knowing that you will one day see Linda again.

Isaiah 26:19 "Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life"

“ I was a 1965 classmate of Linda's and she was such a sweet and friendly person to be around. I lost track of her over the years but often wandered what had become of her . I am so sorry for your loss. May God bless her family.

“ Our thoughts & prayers are with you. May God bless & sustain you & grant you strength, peace, grace, hope, love, serenity & a strong faith. One "Glorious Day" in God's timing we shall all join on that "Golden Shore" where Linda has been reunited with her loved ones gone before her. What a "Reunion"!! Linda certainly will be missed, but she is at peace once again & she is a "Guardian Angel" watching over her loved ones until at which time God calls you home to be reunited. Matthew 10:30 says that every hair on our heads are numbered & Ecclesiastes 3 says that there is a time & a place & a reason & a season for everything under the Heavens & God is in control. We can be sure our names are written in God's book & in His timing!! . The spirit is eternal & Linda's spirit shall remain with her loved ones in every bright, shining star & in every beautiful, colorful rainbow & in the sun & the moon & the clouds & in all that you say & do. God Bless, Comfort & Cherish you with all your precious memories to hold near & dear to your hearts!! Sending our love & prayers to all!!
