“ Have been sitting here thinking of so many memories of Linda. From our years on Michigan Hill and growing up on Hopyard. Over a year ago, we started playing Scrabble together (I played, she kicked ass!). We also started messaging thru the game. We learned about our lives now. Shared our happy days and tough ones. When we couldn't sleep, the other was usually awake too and we played and talked a bit more. I will really miss those talks, laughs...lots of laughs. Love you, Linda Lea!! So glad we really reconnected. Fly high, dear cousin!!

“ My dear friend,Linda, loved to travel with me, loved seeing new places and learning about things. Always the optimist, could read me so well, always ready to lend a helping hand. She smiled so readily, that she would make me smile. What am I going to do without you, my friend? Our loss is Heaven's gain! So, until I see you again, (because, you know I am thinking of you) I will keep smiling for you! I love you, my friend, I always and always will! Welcome home!
