“ Deeply saddened by the news of his passing. Unfortunately, I was not informed until it was too late to attend his funeral.

“ Deb, Mark all the grandchildren:
So sorry to hear of your father's passing. Uncle Louie was always kind, warm and welcoming.
He also was a great joke teller! No matter how many times and no matter what age we were he would re-tell the story about 2 brothers and the Bible salesman. I am smiling now. Growing up your house was always where we gathered. Great food, (Louie's famous BBQ chicken in summer). A large dining room table laden with all our favorites and the pies! Loud laughter and us all talking at the same time. You are so blessed to have him for so long. God Bless. Rest in piece Uncle Louie. Love, Lynn “ Lou was such a kind man. And neighborly. Every time I would go walking in Milltown, my path would take me past his house. One day he hailed me from his front porch, and after that we were like neighbors. From time to time over the years, we got to know each other a little bit better [and I believe I met Mark, Deb and Garry on that same porch]. One spring my daughter and I were walking, and she stopped to smell the lilacs on the edge of his lawn. He noticed that and came out with his clippers to cut off a flowery branch for her. We discovered he was also a talented artist. Once he invited the two of us into the house to look at his paintings, and then, after our review, he just offered her one of her choice, framed. And at his kitchen table, he told me more about Sayre history than I ever knew. Our sincere condolences to all of his family.

“ To the family we are sending our deepest condolences. Papa as I knew him, made a huge impact on many lives. If not with his laugh, then definitely with his cooking! He was deeply loved, and will be so missed. Sending all of our love, Briana, James, and Orinn Hauck

“ Mark, Lisa, Deb and family, I'm so sorry to hear about Lou's passing. I loved talking to him when I visited the valley. The one story he always talked about was the time Mark and I were trying to catch ducks in the creek! Great memories and much respect to that man. RIP Lou... 🙏

“ My Uncle Louie, always good for a laugh, and advice. He and Aunt Toni expanded my knowledge of different foods. Shrimp, lasagna, and many more. You could always count on a hug and a kiss. I always thought that Uncle Louie and Aunt Toni were rich, because when the milk man came, sometimes they would get chocolate milk. Living just around the corner, it was like being home. Always welcome and cared for. In my younger days, Deb and Mark were like siblings. Go and dance with Aunt Toni. See you on the other side! Love Brenda
