“ Mary Ann, Diane and Mike,
I am deeply sorry for your loss. Your mother was a beautiful soul and I remember her kindness so well. May the memories be a comfort that will live in your heart forever and be a source of strength and peace. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Diane and family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I remember your mom as such a sweet person. I so wanted to come to visitation hours, but was unable to get out of work. You were blessed with great parents, and lets not forget Guppy! Take Care! Kathy West Anderson

Dear Mary Ann, Diane and Mike,

I remember your Mom very much, growing up in West Sayre and how nice she was when ever I stopped to get Mary Ann to walk to school or other events. While I live now outside Philadelphia, when I am in Sayre and drive down Lincoln St, I always think of your family, and of course, Buffy.

I am sincerely sorry for your loss,
Theresa West Marshall
