

Mabel J. Ewing

January 24, 1934 - October 19, 2024

On October 19th, 2024, Mabel J. Ewing (Abadie) 90, of Towanda, PA left to walk on the sandy beaches.

Mabel was born January 24, 1934, in Cape May, NJ the daughter of Oscar Felton Ewing and Wilamina Johnson Ewing. She worked and grew up on the family farm after graduating high school at Cape May High. Mabel married Robert A. Abadie, and they then moved to work on their own dairy farm on Red Rock Road, Wysox. After raising 4 children, Mabel embarked on a new Journey. As she loved to travel she became a truck driver and hauled salt and coal before joining Branch Freightway as a union driver. Mabel was one of the first women truck drivers in the 70's. Her CB handle was the White Tornado, After retirement, she relocated to Fort Myers, Florida where she spent many years traveling and exploring new places like the Amazon River, Antarctica, and Alaska. Loving animals, Mabel would travel to see penguins, moose, eagles, and dolphins. For her 80th birthday wish she swam with tigers. Mabel cherished time spent with her loved ones traveling, gardening, and the great outdoors. Mabel was predeceased by her sister Hannah and George. Mabel is survived by her four children, Robert, William, Daniel, and Ruth Abadie (Roof), 8 grandchildren, and 5 great grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were entrusted to the Maryott-Bowen Funeral Home, Towanda. Mabel will be laid to rest at Cold Springs Cemetery, Cape May, NJ. For Mabel's love of animals, in lieu of flowers the family kindly requests contributions be directed to the local animal shelters in her memory.

Mabel's hard work and her love of adventure will deeply be cherished by all who knew her!
