“ Aunt Marian was so giving and caring, and always had time for us when we came to visit out of the blue. We would sit around her table and chat and play cards, while she caught up on our lives and told us the latest town gossip. She was so talented and hard working. She made two beautiful afghans for me when I was first married and for my first baby, and just a few years ago, she reached into her many chests of quilts and found just the right one for me to take home. I loved to see what she was working on in the room full of sewing machines and fabric. We were so lucky to have had her as our aunt. Thank you for sharing her.
