

Mary Ann Bubniak

November 26, 1955 - March 17, 2025

Mary Ann Bubniak, 69 of 117 North Higgins Avenue, Sayre passed away peacefully at the Robert Packer Hospital on Monday, March 17, 2025 after a brief illness.

Mary Ann was born on November 26, 1955, to Anton Bubniak and Helen Novak Bubniak and was the oldest of two children.

Mary Ann attended Sayre schools and upon graduation in 1973, she attended Penn State University at the Hazelton PA campus. She later transferred to the main Penn State campus where she fell in love with the ambiance and remained there for several years after graduation. She then returned to her hometown of Sayre, PA where she could be closer to her family. Mary Ann worked as the Parts Manager at Interstate Auto and then went on to work as Parts and Service Manager at Scoville-Meno Auto for most of her work career. Mary Ann thrived on the company of her friends and relatives. She enjoyed hosting celebrations at her house, whether it was for the holidays, Penn State football, or just a chance to get together. She was an avid sports fan, and especially loyal to the New York Mets and Penn State Nittany Lions.

Mary Ann is survived by her brother Tony Bubniak and sister-in-law Janet, nephew Michael Bubniak, and niece Alyssa Bubniak and multiple cousins who she simply adored.

On behalf of our family, we extend our heartfelt thanks to all who provide support for Mary Ann during her recent illness, and especially her lifelong neighbor Julia Brown, truly an angel on earth.

“ My sympathy goes out to Tony and Family and to all who grieve Mary Ann's passing. We were East Side friends since childhood. There was not a sweeter, kinder person than Mary Ann. May she rest in the arms of the angels, with her parents. Jean O'Connell
