“ What a trooper with more courage to face each day than I can imagine. It is hard to believe that we first met when she was in middle school and have kept in touch for this long. I know that Mary has been in a lot of pain lately. In our conversations she did not know how much longer she could go on. Somewhere in her soul she always seemed to find the strength to go on for another day, but not this time. I wondered why I did not hear from her after her birthday. Since I am not on Facebook, my neighbor told me yesterday. She loved her family and friends. I will miss my "phone buddy"! She is now in a better place where there is no more pain. Unfortunately, I will be in Harrisburg on Tuesday and cannot change the appointment. Wish I could be there for you, but I will have to send my love and condolences via e-mail. Mary, rest in peace until we meet again.
