“ I will forever check the back seat of my car every time I get in because of the time you almost gave me a heart attack hiding in my back seat in the dark.....Or how about the time I thought I was alone, and you just sat still and didn't say a word and let me walk right by you.. and then it hit me someone was there besides myself.. You had a knack for and LOVED scaring people. You will be missed by all who knew you well. The game nights will have a missing seat, the shop will feel a little empty, and the church will miss your worshiping. I'm sad for all the life you didn't get to live- all the joys that were yet to come, but I know that given the choice between heaven and earth- you would have chosen heaven. See you again some day.
