“ *To Shirley and all the family and friends of Nate, Our hearts were broken Saturday morning when we heard the sad news that Nate had passed away. Not too many people leave a lasting impression but Nate sure left a positive mark on our family.
Nate always went out of his way to speak whenever we saw him. As a young boy while standing waiting for the bus, he would jump up and down, waiving and waiving to us with a great big smile as we drove by. We always loved to watch him play baseball as a young boy. He was such a joy and delight to be around. Nate grew up to be such a wonderful young man. Shirley you sure did a great job raising him and you should be very proud! We are here for you if you need anything. So deeply sorry, Nick and Patti Ball, Megan and Andrew Jarvis and Nicholas and Courtney*

What an amazing young man! I will never forget him I did a little bragging about him in the time I knew him he was strength and love and kindness and sensibility All wrapped in one. My heart aches for you Shirley and the whole family and grandma and grandpa. No words can make you feel better or make any sense out of this. Life is and always will be a mystery until we join our loved ones and the mystery is opened up to us Like it has been for them! My deepest sympathy for your pain and love to all of you. Verna

“ My heart is broken and there's a piece that I will never get back. Nate, you were a huge part of my life and I will treasure that and all of our memories... From you surprising me in Pittsburgh when I came home from Italy, watching you dance with your mom at family weddings and for them making me feel like I was a part of the family, watching an endless amount of baseball, and hearing how proud you were to be an uncle for the first time. I was blessed to see a side of you that many people didn't get a chance to see. Even until recently, you always made sure I knew you were still thinking of me and how proud you were that I was still following my dreams. Now, I just hope you know how proud I was of you for being such a hard worker and affecting so many people in a positive way. My heart goes out to your family and close friends. Rest peacefully knowing how much you meant to so many people... I'll be missing you Natedawg. Love, Colie
