

Nathaniel R. "Nate" Caton

October 9, 1961 - August 27, 2025

Nathaniel "Nate" R. Caton 63, of Wysox PA. passed away early Wednesday morning, August 27, 2025, at Robert Packer Hospital in Sayre, PA.

surrounded by friends and family. Nate was born Oct 9th, 1961, to William & Gladys (nee Pullis) Caton of Sussex, NJ. He later moved to Troy PA. where he served on the Troy Fire Department, until the early 1990s, and met his wife. He and his then future wife moved to Wysox in 1991 where they were married. He was a loving husband, brother, "Poppy", and friend to those who knew him.

Nate will be fondly remembered as the life of the party. He brought happiness and laughter wherever he went. Many will remember Nate for his yearly Labor Day Celebrations (often featuring his famous barbeque) which was always open to everyone whether he knew you for a day or a decade. His warmth, generosity and love for people made sure everyone was included. Nate was predeceased by his son, Timothy (Linda) Morgan; brothers, Edward Sr., Keith and Terry; sisters, Billie Mae, Penny, Joyce; his parents, aunts, and uncles. He is survived by his wife of 33 years Judith Caton (nee Schultz); children, Stacey (Crystal) & Jason Victory both of Wysox; grandchildren, Riley Victory of Wysox and Lauren, Dayna, & Bryce Victory all of Wyalusing; brothers, Thomas of GA., Hans Nicholas "Nick" of PA, brothers-in-law, Peter (Carol) Schultz of Arizona and Michael (Katie) Schultz of Connecticut as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins. Interment will be at Wysox Cemetery at the family's convenience. Following his way of life, a Celebration of Life is planned at the family's home for Oct 11th at 4pm. More information to follow.
