January 27, 1958 - March 9, 2012

Pamela Kay Goodenow, 53, also known as "Snoopy" to her friends, passed away suddenly Friday morning at her home on Elizabeth Street, Towanda, Pa.

Pam was born Jan. 27, 1958, the daughter of Connie and Jane Goodenow of Wysox Pa. They preceded her in death.

Pam was known for her vibrant personality, as she always worked serving the public. She was employed as a waitress/bartender, until failing health no longer permitted her to work. Pam and her 13-year-old daughter Rebecca shared the same birthday, a significant happening in her life that she was proud of.

Besides her deceased parents Connie and Jane Goodenow, Pam is survived by her son Corey and daughter Rebecca at home, several aunts, cousins, and numerous special friends.
