

Patricia Williams Bradley

September 16, 1930 - January 13, 2014

On Jan. 13, 2014, Patricia Williams Bradley peacefully passed away at home surrounded by her family. Born on Sept. 16, 1930 to Harriet Roe Williams and Leo Charles Williams in Towanda, Pa., Patricia (Patsy or Pat) grew up on Second Street with her four brothers, graduated from Towanda High School in 1948, and attended nursing school. Pat worked for several years at GTE Sylvania, where she met her husband of 52 years, Andrew (Andy) Bradley, who predeceased her on Dec. 12, 2012. After leaving Sylvania but maintaining many friendships from their years there, Pat and Andy established and managed a plumbing business, a building and mechanical contracting business, and renovated and managed a retail plaza in Dushore. Most significant for Pat were her decades managing apartment buildings in Dushore and Mildred, where through her typical kindness and generosity, she treated tenants as extended family. Pat and Andy also renovated homes in Florida and Lake Wesauking. Over about 20 years at "the lake," Pat reconnected with her Towanda friends and spent precious time with her brothers Jack and Charlie Williams, and her nieces and nephews. Family was closest to Pat's heart. She was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, and over the past five years, great-grandmother, all roles she relished. Pat is survived by three daughters and sons-in-law: Peggy and Kerry Meehan, Cathy and Frank Kravetz, and Angela Bradley and Scott Ecksel; grandchildren Rae Lynn Cox, Amanda Cox Owens and her husband Kenny Owens, Alicia Kravetz, and Kyle Kravetz; two great-grandchildren, Fletcher

Owens and Macy Owens; and a dearest, lifelong friend JoAnn Burke. Arrangements are through Maryott-Bowen Funeral Home, 217 York Avenue, Towanda, Pa., for Sunday, January 19, 2014: public visitation from 1-2:30 p.m., followed by a ceremony officiated by Reverend Joseph Hornick from 2:30-3:30 p.m. Burial will be private and at the convenience of the family. Memorial contributions in remembrance of Patricia may be made to Dushore Fire Company and Ambulance; Guthrie Home Hospice, Towanda; or Susquehanna Hospice, Williamsport.
