

Patricia Louise "Patty" Vanderpool

July 24, 1943 - May 30, 2020

Patricia "Patty" Louise Vanderpool, 76

On Sunday May 30th Patty Vanderpool went to be with her husband Enie & grandson Chad in heaven. That day the world lost a kind and caring woman with a huge heart, someone who would do anything for anyone.

Born on July 24, 1943 in Sayre, she was the second child of Robert & Amanda Alexander. Her strong sense of family was developed during her childhood years as she would eventually have seven siblings.

She was a graduate of Sayre High School. After school she worked at Johnnie's Grocery Store on the East side then spent many years as a seamstress at the Athens Dress Factory & Evan Scott Dress Factory in Sayre. She finished out her career working in the cafeteria of the Harlen Rowe Middle School, a job she particularly loved because she could see her two oldest grandchildren daily. Unfortunately, she retired before the others were old enough to come through her line.

Patty's life truly revolved around her children, grandchildren, and recently great-grandchildren. She and her husband of 52 years, Enie, started a family soon after they were married on November 5th, 1966. They worked hard and raised their children Amanda & Scott with the right values and priorities. They started camping when their kids were young and regularly went with Grandpa & Grandma Alexander, Janie & Joe Searfoss, Glenn & Linda Vanderpool, and their families. They also spent many fun times with sister Linda & her husband

Ray (Ellis) through the years. Patty was also a regular figure at many Athens school & sporting events, following her children & grandchildren. She never missed anything they were doing.

In her later years Patty loved to go to Bingo, sometimes three times a week. She also enjoyed going to numerous casinos, especially overnight trips with brother & sister-in-law Glenn & Linda Vanderpool.

She is predeceased by her loving husband of 52 years, Enie; her parents Robert Alexander & Amanda Wayman; siblings Robert Alexander Jr., Dorothy King, and Gertrude Wayman; father & mother-in-law Dwight & Florence Vanderpool; sisters-in-law Linda Vanderpool, Bessie Porter & Viola Vanderpool; brothers-in-law Joe Searfoss & Chet Vanduzer; and by her beloved grandson Chad Sindoni, the one she took exceptionally hard. They are all finally reunited in Heaven.

She is survived by her daughter Amanda (Jon) Sindoni; son Scott (& fiancé Trina Porter); granddaughters Alex (Jeremy) Baird, Abby Sindoni, & Makenzie Lantz; grandson Mason Vanderpool; great-grandchildren Ainsley & Maverick Baird; step-grandchildren Megan, Zach & Aidan Porter; sisters Janie Searfoss, Linda (Ray) Ellis, & Genevieve Driesbaugh; and brothers Michael & Willard Wayman Jr., sisters-in-law Leona VanDuzer, Verna Kinney, Rosemary (Richard) Bartleson, and Kathy (Dale) Stack; brothers-in-law James, Glenn, & Ernst Vanderpool; along with numerous nieces & nephews.

A graveside funeral will be this Saturday June 13th at the Tioga Point Cemetery in Athens at 11am where she will be laid to rest next to her husband Enie and grandson Chad.
