

Raymonde Malboeuf DePumpo

December 15, 1926 - March 5, 2025

Raymonde (Malboeuf) DePumpo, 98, of Waverly, New York passed away on March 5, 2025.

She was born in Salaberry-de-Valleyfield, Quebec, Canada in 1926. After marrying her first husband, Joseph Trudeau, they emigrated to the United States in 1949. She became a naturalized U.S. citizen a few short years later and proudly flew the American flag in her front yard. They eventually settled in Waverly, NY where her husband was a successful business owner. She devoted herself to raising their children and making a lovely home. As a member of St. James Church, she belonged to the Rosary Altar Society. A few years after her husband's untimely passing in 1970, she married Lester DePumpo and the two lived in Waverly until his passing in 2008.

She is survived by her five children: Nicole Heath of Waverly, NY, Claude Trudeau of Waverly, NY, Charles Trudeau of Waverly, NY, Michael Trudeau of Chemung NY, and Denise Krause of Lockwood, NY. She is also survived by many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

A funeral Mass at St. James Church in Waverly, NY will be celebrated on Monday, March 17, 2025 at 10:00 a.m.. Interment will follow at St. James Cemetery in Waverly, NY.

Arrangements are under the direction of the Alteri-Bowen Funeral Home,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. She was an incredible woman. I only met her a few times but knowing she was my Grandmother Gertrude's best friend made me love her.
