“ My husband Shawn and I were youth leaders at Faith Mountain Fellowship until 2005 while your parents were attending. Your mother shared her love of quilting with me and encouraged me so much to try it again. I did a few years later when time allowed me to do more like that.

The two of them were a sweet couple and showed us how a loving marriage could look in our golden years. What a treasure you had here on earth in such godly parents. We loved them dearly and cherish the time we got to have with them. Bless you all as you walk out this season of mourning. Praying that comfort will fill your hearts knowing they are once again together in heaven awaiting your joining them someday. Victoria Neitz
