

Richard D. Haggerty

June 5, 1959 - April 18, 2013

Richard D. Haggerty, 53, of Ulster, Pa., passed away on April 18, 2013, at his home.

Rick was born in Barton, New York on June 5, 1959 and was the proud son of Bill and Kate Hunter. He lived here and there, however spent most of his life in the Sayre/Athens "Valley" area. In August of 1994, Rick married Susan 'Rae' Lane of Ulster at her family home.

He served with the U.S. Navy, and was formerly employed by the Ingersoll-Rand in Athens, the railroad and a few other places around the country. Rick attended the East Smithfield United Methodist Church since moving back to the area. He always strived to set an example for others on how to live their life for Christ, respect your family and show others how to love one another.

He leaves behind his loving wife, Rae; his son, Jon; daughter-in-law; Jami; three grandchildren, Jozalyn, Julianne and James David. As well as brothers and sisters: Wally and Patti Haggerty, Elwood Hunter, Mary Kaye and George Gore, Floyd and Marie Haggerty, Jeff Lane and fiancée Kristi Summers, Mike Lane and fiancée Stephanie Inman, and Gary and Kim Lane. Along with many nieces, nephews, cousins and a pair of wonderful dogs that kept him company to the end.

A memorial service followed by a celebration of life reception will be held at noon on Saturday, April 27, 2013, at the East Smithfield United Methodist Church, Church Street, East Smithfield, Pa., with Pastor Vern Jackson officiating.

The celebration of life reception will include finger foods and other dishes brought in by family and friends. Feel welcome to bring a dish of food you know Rick would have loved.

A special "thank you" to the volunteers from family and the church, Guthrie Hospice and CareGivers of America, who helped Rae and Rick in the last few weeks.

Instead of sending flowers, please plant something at your home, such as a tree, in memory of Rick, or direct a gift to Rick's favorite charity, Bridges for Peace, the Greatest Needs of Israel, PO Box 410037, Melbourne, FL 32941-0037.

The Maryott-Bowen Funeral Home of Towanda, Pa., is assisting Rick's family with arrangements. Memories and condolences may be expressed by visiting www.bowenfuneralhomes.com.
