“ The first thing you see when you met Rich was that great, big, open, infectious smile that made you feel like you were the most important person in the world to him. I will never forget all the music we shared, the benefits, and just being in his presence. He was a blessing to the World. I will deeply miss him. My sincere condolences to Colleen, Brittany, Ryan, and their families.

“ Colleen, We were away today and just got home. I got the paper from the mailbox and read about Rich. I was saddened to my core. I can't believe it. He was genius in my book and so clever in many ways. I was always amazed with what he came up with. My wife and I send our deepest condolences.
