“ I realize that there are no words that can be said that will lessen your grief.

I read a quote once that has stayed with me...,

" Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know that they are happy"

Let us all look up at the night time sky and know that our loved ones are there and happy.

You are in our thoughts,

“ Heartbroken to hear of Bobby's passing. Our family has always known him to be the man always willing to lend a hand. The day we heard of his death we were putting hay in the barn. It was a tough thing to remember that just last year he was right there helping us and fell out of the truck trying to do hay in flip-flops. I will always remember that he was the one willing to swing from the top of the barn in the wind as we were trying to get it put together. May you finally be at peace, my friend! Our sympathies to Zach, Corrine, Zoe and his family. Chuck, Tina, & Courtney Woodward

“ Very sorry to hear of Bobby's passing, as word spread quite quickly through his hometown of Carteret, NJ. I've known Bobby since Kindergarten at Washington School, through our High School years. Bobby was a good friend with whom alot of us here have fond memories of.
To Bobby's family, you have my condolences and hope you find the strength to guide you through this very difficult time.

“ Our first memories of Bobby? Working on the foundation of his new home in Standing Stone, his bandana soaked with sweat and a smile on his face. Proud of his wife, his children, and his new home. Over the years that smile remained for friends and neighbors. He was always ready to lend a hand and crack a joke, make light of a bad situation, and do whatever he could to make things work. He got a flat tire off of a very full silage wagon out in the cornfield, and took Helen to the ER with her broken foot. A versatile and kind-hearted man, willing to help others anytime, anywhere. Just like the rest of us, he had his issues. Just like the rest of us, if he could have a do-over we're sure he would. But life isn't like that, and he did the very best he was able to do. Have we missed him? Yes. Will we continue to miss him? Absolutely! He was a joy and a character. He was a good friend.

That's how we will remember Bobby. Bill and Helen Olewnik

I am terribly saddened to hear of Robby's passing. Although it had been many years since we have seen each other, I will always hold him in my heart and feel as if I lost a brother and a friend. Time can not erase the memory of his laughter and the big smile he always had for everyone. My love and prayers go out to all of you in your time of sorrow. May he rest in the arms of angels! Much love, Suzanne (Salsano) and Pat Traina
