“ Bob and I met in a dog park in Manhattan. We shared a love of dogs and other animals , When I moved to New England, we visited Bob and Kelly in New York and later in LeRaysville. My family and I moved to California, but still stayed in touch with Bob, speaking on the telephone and sending Emails.

When Bob stopped responding I spoke to various people who told me of a terrible auto accident but did not know what nursing home he was taken to. My searches were unsuccessful until today when our son found this notice.

Bob was a good friend who lived life fully and my family and I will miss him.
