

Robert J. Weiss

December 10, 1944 - February 28, 2024

Robert J. Weiss, 79, of Franklin Township, PA passed away Wednesday, February 28, 2024 at his home following declining health. Robert was born December 10, 1944, at the Mills Hospital in Towanda, PA the son of Gurtrude McNeal Vough and raised by Frank M Vough.

Robert graduated from Towanda High School in 1962.

Robert married the former Wanda M Isbell on August 22, 1964.

Robert worked at Masonite for 6 years before working for Stroud's in Wysox for several years and then for Cummings well drilling for several years until returning to Masonite and retiring in 2005.

Robert loved NASCAR racing and was a fan of the Pittsburgh Steelers. In his early years, he would help people tinker with cars and assist local people with plumbing issues. In his early years you could find him playing and singing Johnny Cash songs with his 3-chord guitar at a few local watering holes. He always liked telling people jokes and making people laugh. Robert always enjoyed family gatherings and the grand kids and great grand kids. On April 27, 2023, he lost the love of his life, Wanda, after 58 years of marriage. After losing Wanda, his health slowly declined from what was believed to be a broken heart. In October he found out he had stage 4 pancreatic cancer. He fought as hard as any man could, but he was too weak to win the battle. He passed peacefully with his family around him on Wednesday February 28th, with Hospice taking care of all his needs and the hope to meet up with Wanda once again.

He is survived by his son and wife Frankie Sr. and Lisa S.
