“ Pastor Romig was a great man of faith. For many years my grandparents attended the Sayre church and were good friends with Pastor. After a few visits I was saved in 2008 and baptized by Pastor Romig on Feb. 2 2008. I Will always think very highly of Roland. His words were always full of truth and he was a great educator and man. Thank you for all your years of doing Gods work.

“ I knew Pastor Romig when he was the preacher at Jersey Hill Church. I was saved at that church because of Pastor's love for the people there. I lost a baby brother while Pastor was at the church. He helped us all to get through a terrible loss and most of my family got closer to God. I will always remember him and Mrs. Romig with the accordian. I was Bonnie Tyler back then, my married name is Brewer now. Heaven has received a mighty warrior. Sincerely, Bonnie Tyler Brewer Meshoppen PA
