“ Rudy was my dad's best friend. They had plenty of adventures and good times together, from golf games to "date nights" at the track. One special adventure I shared with them. I joined them in D.C. when they took the Honor Flight to Washington to see all the war memorials, and especially the World War II Memorial. The measure of respect Rudy was accorded as a WWII veteran on this trip was heartwarming.

They call them the Greatest Generation for a reason.

Our condolences go out to his family.
