“Condolences to the family. Mrs. Herbert was a great comfort to our family when we moved into the house next door in September 1971. We were far away from family and friends and she and Mr. Herbert took us under their wings and became like grandparents to us kids. They were there when my mom under went breast cancer surgery just months after we moved in, making us dinner and helping in whatever way they could. I can not say enough about the caring, sharing people they were. Many a New Year's Eve was spent at their house eating, dancing and celebrating! Rest in peace Mrs. Herbert. You are now in God's hands. Love you, Debbie (Phillips) Cobb, Donna (Phillips) Miller, Doreen (Phillips) Brown, Doug Phillips, and Jim and Grace Phillips
