“ So sorry to read of Sally's passing!! Our thoughts & prayers are with you. May God bless & sustain you & grant you strength,courage,peace,grace,love,hope,serenity & a strong faith. One "Glorious Day" in God's timing, we shall all be reunited on that "Golden Shore" where Sally has been reunited with her husband,Glenn & other loved one's gone before her,what a "Reunion". Sally missed Glenn so much!! We loved them both!! They are both missed at Towanda Senior's & everywhere. They were both wonderful people & a great couple!! Matthew 10:30 says that every hair on our heads are numbered & Ecclesiastes 3 says that there is a time to be born & time to die & a reason & a season & a time & a place for everything under the Heavens & God is in control. We can be sure that our names are written in God's book & in his timing. The spiorit is eternal & Sally & Glenn's spirit will remain with their loved ones in every bright,shining star & in every beautiful,colorful rainbow & in the sun & the moon & the clouds & in all that you say & do They are your "Guardian Angel's" watching over you!! God bless,comfort & cherish you with all your precious memories to hold near & dear to your hearts!! Sending our love to the famil;ies!!

“ We are so sorry for the loss of Sally. We have only lived on 27 Kingsbury Avenue since June of last year but would often visit her from her front porch. She always came over to my yard sales, in fact one of her sons bought a red lamp and I packed it for the trip back to Florida. She let me know right away that the lamp arrived safe. She was a loving and thoughtful lady. She will be missed in the area. Please let us know if we can do anything for your family.

“ Cathy, Jim and Glenn, so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. She was so full of life, always will remember seeing both your parents out and walking all the time. Your mom came to visit our mom at the PCH, it always made her day to see a familiar face. Our thoughts and prayers to all of you, Paul and Wendy Manchester
