“Share a memory” .... there are so many .... our early friendship when Sarah and Jim lived in Towanda in the 1960's, Quarry Glen dinners and work sessions, King and Queen of Failte Inn, Renaissance Festivals (in costumes), and always an open door in her home for a visit. Of course, my favorite memory is probably the graciousness of Sarah and Jim, especially when our daughter was married at the Failte Inn; the entire wedding party stayed overnight and the hosts had their usual "open house" for our family and friends on the wedding eve. What wonderful friends Sarah, and Jim, have been throughout the years. I miss Sarah, but have found a peaceful, happy consolation from reading her recently-published poetry. Chuck and I will never forget Sarah and Jim. We hope for God's kind blessings upon the True Family.
