

Scott Alan McGuinness

March 12, 1963 - September 26, 2016

It is with great sadness the family of Scott A. McGuinness announce his passing. Scott McGuinness through his 53 years amassed many friends and broadened his family. He was the husband of Marilyn Blair McGuinness with whom he shared just six short months of marriage. He loved his bride. This vibrant man leaves his sons Bryan, Christopher, and Joseph. He leaves his daughter Amanda and grandchildren. Scott leaves also his step children Nicholas and Brittany. This 1981 Dieruff High School graduate spent over thirty years in the beef packing industry and had a love for cooking for his friends and family. He was currently a plumbing specialist at Lowes in Charlotte County, Florida. This guy could fix anything! He was the son of Carolyn (Connie) McGuinness and her late husband James Bruce McGuinness. Scott McGuinness was larger than life. He shared his short 53 years on this earth with his beloved brother Robert of New York, his sisters Karen and Sandra of Pennsylvania; and his sister Barbara of Massachusetts. Over the years, we have lost so many good south side veterans and Scott just adds to the fallen US Marines. He served his country proud. Semper Fi my brother. We love you and we will all miss you. At the request of the family, please donate to the American Lung Association or the American Heart Association as we mourn the loss of our loved one. Services are private. “ I have so many memories of Scott I would be here for weeks expressing our good times. The one that will forever stick in my head is one night we were out with all the southsiders went back to my house. Scott and my dad were drinking shooting the conversations I went to bed. The next morning I came downstairs there Scott and my dad were passed out on two seperate sofas. It was hysterical. All the memories will forever be in my heart. I will miss you dearly. Rest in peace brother. My condolences go out to the family.
Love.
