“ Today I think of my friend Sherrill. I'm so glad that I signed up to volunteer at the polls. It's funny in life how the smallest change can affect your life for the better. I'm so happy to have known Sherrill. I'm so thankful I began working at the polls with her. You learn a lot about a person when you work together for 14 hours. The stories Sherrill would tell about meeting Ralph and the escapades that happened. The kids growing up, Caring for their parents, overcoming her sickness, so many stories I will keep in my heart. I will fondly remember Sherrill, my friend, neighbor and co-worker. I want to say thank you to the Jennings children for taking such great care of her at her time of need. Ralph, you know we're just over the hill if you need anything.

“ Sherrill was a great friend of my Moms. I am so sad to hear of her passing. She always went out of her way to speak when she seen us. You are in my thoughts Ralph.

“ Oh, the church memories we have! If something funny happened at church - and that happened so often!! - how we all loved to hear her distinct laugh! And.....whenever we had a get-together after church or had a church dinner for the public, I know I wasn't the only one who wanted to know what Sherrill brought, because whatever she brought, it was guaranteed to be delicious! Ralph, it breaks my heart, but I have an infusion treatment on Tues, Jan. 4 at Sayre, so I won't make it to her funeral or even before hand. I am with you in spirit. Please say Hi to Andy for me!

“ To Our Cousin Ralph Jennings and Family, we send your way our condolences to you folks with the passing of Sherrill. At times, my mom, who thought much of Sherrill, would keep us informed of Sherrill's busy schedule. We've continued to keep your family in both our personal and collective church prayer lists at this time. Trusting the Lord will be your comfort and peace at this time, remembering, "That to be absent from this earthly life, is to be present with the Lord."
Your cousin Paul Fitch and family.
