

Sophy Fedchak Kozemko

August 26, 1927 - November 22, 2017

Sophy Fedchak Kozemko, 90, a life-long resident of Sayre formerly of North Higgins Avenue, passed away Wednesday evening, November 22, 2017 at the Athens Health Care Center, Athens, PA. Sophy was born at home in Sayre on August 26, 1927 the daughter of Hnatko and Anna Palipchak Fedchak. She was a graduate of Sayre High School. Sophy was a dedicated homemaker who took great pride in the accomplishments of her grandchildren. She was an excellent cook, whose holupchi and kapusta were unparalleled. Sophy enjoyed having her family around for celebrations. She left her earthbound family to join her heavenly family just in time for the holiday season. Sophy's family extends special thanks to the kind and caring women who took such good care of her from Caregivers in Sayre and during her recent short stay at the Athens Health Care Center. Also, special thanks to Steve Novak who was kind enough to help Sophy and her sister with housing after they were displaced from their lifelong homes by Hurricane Irene. Sophy was a member of the Ascension of Our Lord Ukrainian Catholic Church in Sayre.

Surviving are; her children, Deborah Kozemko and husband Bryon Robinson of Albany, NY, Mark Kozemko and wife Paulette of South Waverly, daughter-in-law, Susan Kozemko (widow of John Kozemko) of Knoxville, TN, grandchildren, Alicia Robinson Dimilia and husband Joseph, Rachel Kozemko, Olivia Kozemko, William Kozemko, Kevin Robinson, Joseph Kozemko, and Benjamin Kozemko, brother-in-law and sister-in-law, Gene and Gail Kozemko of Elmira, NY as well as several nieces, nephews and cousins. In addition to her parents, Sophy was predeceased by her husband of 51 years, Emil Kozemko on October 13, 2006, son, John Kozemko on June 8, 2013, sister, Ann Fedchak on October 2, 2016, brothers, Philip Fedchak on November 3, 2017 and Michael Fedchak on July 21, 2004.
