“ Although I only knew Stella for 7or 8 years, I learned to dearly love her. I am so glad she and Liston shared their last years together. What a beautiful spirit filled lady. Stella and Liston came to Tennessee several times during these last years. Always with a laugh to share. I thank God for allowing me to have known her.

“ I first met Stella at DuPont and she was such a nice person and then she married into the family marrying Lincoln Spencer. Loved seeing her at the Spencer family reunions. She continued to come and brought her husband Liston Pepper. Stella will be dearly missed. She had another family connection with another Spencer descendent Shane Dodge and his wife Stephanie and two young boys. Margaret (Peggy) Warfle and family!

PS

“ Stella and my mother (Lillian Selleck Weisbrod) were friends from childhood. They stayed in touch throughout their lives. When my mother lived in a Skilled Nursing Facility in Tampa, Stella continued to visit her, generally several times a year.

*

On a typical visit, they reminisced about mutual friends and shared escapades. Stella's favorite story which they discussed on every visit was a winter sledding adventure. Mother was riding downhill, and when the sled collided with a tree, she received some scrapes and bruises. Stella helped get her home, and clean up. They always laughed as if they were still there, savoring the outing.

*

Mother always enjoyed her visits, and was more alert then than at any other time. On one of her last visits, Stella asked Mother if she remembered who she was. After a short pause, Mother said, "Well, you used to be Stella", to which she replied, "Well, I still am". In fact Mother could recognize Stella after she did not know me, although I visited every day.

*

I remember Stella as someone who was always willing to try a new adventure, a new restaurant or meet a new person. She seemed to be happy every day, and it lifted my spirits to be around her. I will miss her.

“ Stella joined our family in 1987 when she married my Granddaddy. I was sad to see him move back east again, but the happiness he had when he was with (Grandma) Stella was worth it. They were so beautiful together. They made visiting us a priority and I am so thankful my children were able to know another great grandparent. Stella’s love and smiles and sense of humor will be cherished for the rest of my life. I’ll never forget the time she got up in our horse and rode him around the arena. I’m pretty sure she was in her 80s - and she was chuckling as she sat in that saddle. She was never one to sit still and always willing to jump onboard with anything we wanted to do. I love her so very much. May she Rest In Peace. ❤️
