

Thomas Roger Fitzmartin

August 3, 1938 - March 12, 2019

Thomas Roger Fitzmartin, age 80, of Canisteo, New York, passed away after a short illness on March 12, 2019, at Robert-Packer Hospital in Sayre, Pennsylvania. He was born August 3, 1938 in Dayton, Ohio, to parents John and Margaret Fitzmartin (Baron), both of whom preceded him in death. Also preceding him in death is his former wife, Geraldine (Rowland); sister, Elaine Ratliff; and stepmother, Frances Fitzmartin. He is survived by his daughter, Laura (Robert) Quick of Canisteo, grandson Otis (Ashley) Quick and two great-grandchildren, of Cameron, NY; son, Patrick Fitzmartin, of Dickinson, TX; stepsister, Barbara Zappe, of Oakwood, OH; and four nephews and nieces, David, Dana, Lori Zappe and Helen Ratliff of Ohio. Thomas began his career in the Electronics industry at RCA in Dayton, OH, and retired from the Electro Corporation, Sarasota, FL in the late 1980s. He had a passion for vintage radios, telephones, time pieces, and his beloved companion, Skoshi. Thomas was a private person and in honor of his request, no services will be held, but his memory lives on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. “ I will miss Tommy. As a kid I always looked up to him---thought he was a cool guy. As an adult, I marveled at how much he knew about any and all kind of gadgets and electronics. We all loved to see him roller skate down the street at Dad's house. He was quite accomplished. He was a good spirit and I will miss him.
