“ Todd and I were very close we enjoyed hanging out together and doing flea markets or just coffee and conversation. Todd definitely held a special place in my heart as well as everyone in the family. The girls always loved his famous Mac n cheese that he would bring for the holiday cookouts . We enjoyed his company so very much and he will be missed deeply. Fly high my friend.

“ I’ve known Todd since grade school. He was my best man when I married. One of our first encounters ended up in a fist fight in Ms. Campbells class at A. Lynch school. We became friends when we were playing on the same pee wee football team. Todd played defensive end and I played outside linebacker on the same side. We became great buddies ever since and believe me, nobody ran around our side without paying.

I have many great memories of our years of fishing and hunting trips together and our trips to Beaver Stadium for PSU games. Todd was with me for the whiteout game this year and I am so thankful that he was able to experience that while he was yet with us. I believe Todd is now with our lord and that I will see him again. But not yet.
