

Travis Lee "Trapper" Delamater

November 1, 1984 - July 30, 2024

Travis Lee "Trapper" Delamater, 39, of Towanda, PA gained his angel wings on July 30, 2024, following a tragic accident. Travis was born on November 1, 1984, to Donald and Karen (Oberg) Delamater Jr. Travis was a very likable and caring person who loved everyone. Always hugging and telling people he loved them. He loved the outdoors and had many jobs he loved. He worked for CP Rail and the pipeline, gas industry and his last job was at the Grouse Golf Course. He was an avid hunter, trapper, and fisherman. He learned fishing from the best, his poppa Don. When he was young, he enjoyed going on trips to the Delaware to spear eels with the Delamater family. He is survived by his father, Donald Delamater Jr. of Towanda; his children, who he absolutely adored and was the light of his life, Charlotte, Grant, and Silas; his fiancé, Angela Baker of Towanda; his special daughter, Layla Longcoy of Towanda; his brother & sister-in-law, Jed & April Delamater of Towanda; his nephews, Wyatt and Caden Delamater of Towanda; and his niece, Lilah Delamater of Towanda. A great nephew, Beau Delamater of Towanda. He is also survived by uncles, Tom Oberg, Paul (Janet) Delamater Todd (Vicki) Delamater, Brad (Ann) Delamater. aunts, Kate (Tracy) Vanderpool, Terri (Gene) Johnson, Linda (Ron) Wheeler, and numerous cousins and a special great uncle, Duane (Pat) Lattimer. He was predeceased by his mother, Karen, his maternal grandparents, Bert and Regina (Finlan) Oberg, and his paternal grandparents Donald Sr. and Marcia (Lattimer) Delamater.

The family will receive friends Tuesday, August 6, 2024, from 5 to 7 p.m. with
