“ We were sad today to discover the loss of a truly good person, one of the very few that I’ve known over the years. Like some of her close friends listed here, I was fortunate to have known Vicky from early grade school. All of our memories of her are anchored by her easy and fantastic laugh, one of the greatest that I have ever encountered. Although we have been separated by miles and years, I still consider Vernon my best friend, and have always been glad that he and Vicky finally connected – it was clear during our infrequent but happy visits over the years that she made him a better person, much like she obviously has done for so many others. If exposure to such a kind and beautiful person for even a short time leaves a lasting mark on you, then she will definitely leave an infinitely bright spot in many of our lives for knowing her. To Vernon and to the rest of Vicky’s family and friends, we know you will hold her light in your hearts until you meet again.

“ Vicky and I met in 2nd grade and have been best friends ever since. We spent countless hours together growing up and we were blessed to stay close as we raised our own families. Over the years, there were good times and trying times for each of us. However, we always managed to find the time to be there for each other. Vicky was a wonderful friend, wife, mom, and grandma who always put everyone else’s needs ahead of her own. She was strong, determined and “one tough cookie”. Even as her health failed, she still continued to take care of her family until she could do it no longer. It is hard to imagine life without someone who you have shared so much with. But, this is only a temporary separation. Just as we had talked about....someday we’ll be together again in heaven, best friends living eternally with God! My prayers go out to Vernon, Mindy and the rest of Vicky’s family. May they keep the wonderful memories alive in their hearts..... All my love, Mary Jane Miller

“ I am very saddened and shocked to read of my dear sweet friend's passing. I saw her Thanksgiving Day and that certainly was a true blessing for me, and it mean't so much. My sincere sympathies to Vernon, her dear mother, sisters, brother and her children and entire family. You are and have always been an angel.

“ My heart goes out to Mindy and her family during such a difficult, sad, time. Vicky was an amazing woman. She and Vernon always welcomed me into their home, and treated me no different than one of their own children. When I was away at school, I knew if I went home with Mindy for the weekend, I could say I was going home too. She could empathize with me when I needed someone who could understand. Heaven has gained the sweetest angel, He only takes the very best.
