Bill was such a great guy, always pleasant and helpful. He helped me early in my career at DuPont showing me the ropes both on and off the job. We drank more than a few beers during dart league. His passing brought back a flood of memories, not just of him, but Bumpy, Popeye, Ed Parks, Indian, Jug, Craven, Snake, the electrical group and a whole list of great guys who took us young, green engineers under their wings. It was a great time to work there and I'll always be grateful to all of them.
